ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL BOARD OF LYME, N. H.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1888.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Primary Department:— Summer and winter terms taught by Miss Fannie M. Stevens, and were both very good schools. A lively interest was manifested on the part of both teacher and scholars, and good progress was made.

The advanced department, summer, fall, and winter, taught by Miss Lillie Rose.

The summer and fall terms were very successful schools; so much so, that the School Board had no hesitancy in engaging the same teacher for the winter term. Two of the Board visited the school the first week of the winter term, and were highly pleased with the conduct of both teacher and scholars. Confident of the success of this school, the Board did not think it necessary to visit it again until near its close. Two of the Board visited it again the last week of the term; and they very much regret to be compelled to acknowledge that their expectations were not fully realized. The older scholars very generally made good progress in their studies; but the younger ones gave evidence that they had not received their full share of the time and attention of their teacher. More might be added; but "a word to the wise is sufficient."

DISTRICT NO. 2.

Summer term taught by Miss Abbie S. Downer. This was Miss Downer's first term. There was a lack of order the first part of the term, but a decided improvement in the latter part; and very fair progress was made.

The fall term was taught by Miss Ella S. Palmer. This was a very successful school. The teacher succeeded admirably in getting her scholars interested in their studies, and consequently great improvement was made.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Summer term taught by Miss Carrie L. Flint. Miss Flint fully sustained her former good reputation, both in precept and example, hence the school was perfectly satisfactory.

Winter term was taught by Miss Emma S. Woodward. A good interest was manifested by the teacher, and most of the scholars. There are a few scholars in this school who fail of appreciating the value of an education. The rest of the scholars made good progress. Better order would have insured greater success.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Summer term taught by Miss M. J. Hurlbutt of Hanover—an experienced and successful teacher, managing her school very quietly and easily. Good order was preserved; and a decided improvement was made in all the branches taught.

Winter term taught by Miss Carrie A. Bliss. Very fair progress was made in most of the branches pursued. Better order would, no doubt, have produced greater success. The greatest lack in any of the branches was in reading. When the scholar hesitates about the pronunciation of a word, the information should be given readily and correctly.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Summer and fall terms were taught by Miss Emma S. Woodward. These were both very good schools. Good order was maintained, and very general satisfaction given to all concerned.

Winter term taught by Herbert B. Converse, who well deserves high praise for his cheerful and untiring efforts to secure the greatest possible advancement of the whole school. The Board can truly say, "Well done, good and faithful servant." We want you again.

NO. 7.

Summer term, Emma M. Barnes, teacher. This was her fourth consecutive term in this district. Good order maintained and satisfaction given.

Winter term taught by Mrs. Clara K. Abbott, who labored faithfully and energetically for the best welfare of her pupils.

NO. 8.

This school was under the wise and efficient management of Miss Mary Riley of Orford, both summer and winter. The School Board can but speak in high terms of her efforts to interest her pupils, and of their ardent desire to receive and profit by her instructions.

NO. 9.

Summer term, Miss Annie B. Cutting teacher. A very quiet, orderly school.

Winter term taught by Elmer J. Wheeler. This was Mr. Wheeler's first experience in teaching; but, though inexperienced, he succeeded admirably in his efforts, being faithful in the discharge of his duties as a teacher, and giving good satisfaction.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

There was no summer term. Fall and winter term of 16 weeks was taught by Minnie I. Kinsman. Much credit is due teacher and scholars, and we might add with propriety, parents, for a very pleasant and profitable school. Deportment—highest rank.

DISTRICT NO. 11.

Both summer and fall terms were taught by Miss Jennie A. Bailey.

These were Miss Bailey's first schools, and were very successful, and good satisfaction was given.

DISTRICT NO. 12.

Summer term taught by the late Miss A. A. Winslow. Miss Winslow's former reputation as a teacher of very high rank renders it unnecessary to say more of this school, than that she fully and nobly sustained her previous high record. Her very many scholars here and elsewhere will long cherish her memory.

The winter term was taught by Sidney A. Converse. The report of No. 6 winter term will truly and fully apply to No. 12. Thoroughness of drill in the fundamental principles appears to be the leading characteristics of the Converse brothers as teachers. The Board would very respectfully say to all our teachers "Go and do likewise."

NO. 13.

Summer term was taught by S. Lillian Derby. This was a very good school. Order and general management perfectly satisfactory, Good progress made in all the branches taught.

Winter term taught by Miss M. J. Hurlbutt. This was her third term in this school, and she fully maintained her former good reputation. Entire satisfaction given.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY L. FITCH, WM. H. DIMICK, FRANCIS W. BAKER,	}	School Board.
